Box 154 Sep-Nov 1888

W. A. MacCalla,
BOX 1153, PHILADELPHIA.

HENRY T. COCK, EDITOR IN CHIEF,
BOX 287, PHILADELPHIA.

W. C. Stone,
BOX 1028, SPRINGFIELD, MASS.

THE LITERARY BOARD

—OF THE—

American Philatelic Association,

Publishers of The American Philatelist.

P. O. BOX, 1028.

Springfield, Mass. Nov. 20 1888.

Dear Sir.

I send you to day by registered mail a Washington medal which I believe the Mint cabinet does not contain, & which please accept for the collection. The die was engraved by J. A. Bolen of this city in 1864 & 5 silver, 10 copper & 14 white metal impressions taken. The dies are now useless & the medals comparatively scarce.

Resply Yours

W. C. Stone

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 154

The Literary Board of the American Philatelic Association,
Springfield, Mass.
November 20, 1888

Dear Sir,

I send you to day by registered mail a Washington medal which I believe the Mint cabinet does not contain, & which please accept for the collection. The die was engraved by J.A. Bolen of this city in 1864 & 5 silver, 10 copper & 14 white metal impressions taken. The dies are now useless & the medals comparatively scarce.

Respy. Yours
W.C. Stone